

CANADIAN INSTITUTE
FOR MEDITERRANEAN
STUDIES

INSTITUT CANADIEN
D'ÉTUDES
MÉDITERRANÉENNES

It's always better in the Mediterranean.

Let us take you there.

Public Lecture Program 2018-19

All lectures are open to the public and free of charge.

September 20, 2018
7:15 p.m.

Dr. Adrian Ciani, St. Augustine's Seminary and Seneca College
Popes and Zionists: The Transnational Roman Catholic Church and the Palestine Question

October 25
7:15 p.m.

Dr. Robert Logan, University of Toronto
The Alphabet: Mother of Invention

November 15
7:15 p.m.

Dr. McKenzie Lewis, University of Waterloo
Excavations in Northern Tuscany's Arno River Valley

December 6
7:15 p.m.

John Solheid, University of St. Michael's College
Origen and Third-Century Christian Education in Caesarea Maritima

co-sponsored by the Metropolitan Andrey Sheptytsky Institute

January 17, 2019
7:15 p.m.

Dr. Stephen Tardif, University of St. Michael's College
The Garden of the World: Victorian Visions of Italy

February 14
7:15 p.m.

Dr. Alison More, University of St. Michael's College
Clara in natura, clarior in fama, clarissima in gratia: Clare of Assisi and Feminine Holiness in Later Medieval Europe

March 14
7:15 p.m.

Dr. Peter O'Hagan, University of St. Michael's College
The Rise of the University: A Medieval Institution

April 11
7:15 p.m.

Noel S. McFerran, University of St. Michael's College
Italian Printing in the Kelly Library

Lectures will be held in Room 404, Carr Hall, 100 St. Joseph Street at the University of Toronto, unless otherwise announced.

For more information on CIMS, please visit <http://sites.utoronto.ca/cims> or contact Alex Gropper at alexgropper@rogers.com.