

Later Life Learning Bulletin

Sept. 2017

President's Message:

The rain shortened summer is winding down and we now have our sights on another exciting Later Life Learning season ahead. I extend a big welcome to all members, our veterans and new registrants alike.

I have the privilege of serving as the President of your 2017/2018 Board of Directors. We are nineteen dedicated volunteers with diverse backgrounds, sharing knowledge, experience and work enthusiasm to serve the LLL community.

As a non-profit organization, we are fully committed to support the educational needs of Innis College students, as well as various College infrastructure projects. By early October, you will see the new lobby renovation complete at Innis Town Hall. Less visible, but perhaps more significant, is our ongoing pledge to fund student scholarships and sponsorships. This past year, we have been involved with Innis College in supporting a refugee student.

In the meantime, prepare to sit back, relax and enjoy your lectures and discussions. It will be our delight to see you in the coming new season.

Hugh McDonald President,
Later Life Learning 2017-2018

Sign In:

Please be aware that a new sign in procedure will be in place. When checked in you will be given an identification sticker. If you do not have an identification sticker you will not be admitted to the lecture hall. Only members registered in the course will be allowed to sign in.

Reserved Seating:

Persons with identified special needs have applied for and been allotted reserved seating. Please respect the needs and the process and do not remove the reserved sign or sit in a reserved seat.

Volunteers:

Volunteers are the backbone of Later Life Learning. We simply could not function without their generous participation. Should you have any interest to share your time in a volunteer capacity, please contact Ann Butler at ambutler@rogers.com.
