The Race is Still On!

We're very close to our recruitment goal of 1460 women for the trial with only 84 women to recruit! We have two more recruitment milestones – the 1400th patient and the final (1460th) patient. Keep watching for any interested and eligible women with breech presentation and reminding your colleagues that you need their help. Let's race to the finish!

Welcome to EECV2!

This month we welcome our last two centres to the trial! We now have 73 collaborating centres working to race to the finish! A very warm welcome goes out to:

- Prof Sue Fawcus and Dr Adam Ciesielski, Mowbray Maternity Hospital, Cape Town, SOUTH AFRICA
- Dr Rosalie Grivell and Ms Andrea Deussen, Women's and Children's Hospital, Adelaide, AUSTRALIA

Quote of the Month

Energy and persistence conquer all things.

Second Interim Analysis

The independent Data Safety Monitoring Board recently met and reviewed the data for the second interim analysis and had the following to say in their report:

“There were no safety or other concerns concerning the ongoing data presented to the Committee and the investigators are also to be congratulated on the conduct of this study.”

So congratulations to all of our collaborators and keep up the excellent work – we’re almost finished!
