Activities at Centres:

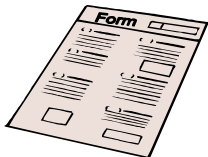

Congratulations are in order to Islamic Hospital in Amman, Jordan for being the first to receive local ethics approval!

Several other sites have already completed paperwork and have submitted the protocol to their local ethics committees for approval – bravo and thank you! For those sites that have not yet submitted to ethics, please do so as soon as possible so that you can begin recruitment as soon as the study officially opens. After we have received your ethics approval, study agreement and other documents, we will send your study start-up packages.

Activities at the Data Coordinating Centre:

Recruitment & Data forms

Recruitment will open in less than two months! The data collection forms are now complete and are currently being pre-tested at a few sites.

New phone number

The TBS Data Coordinating Centre has a new telephone number: (1) 416 – 351 – 2533. Please make a note of it and feel free to call with any questions or for information.

Upcoming Events: Collaborators' Meeting

Coming up in spring 2004, we will hold our first Twin Birth Study Collaborators' Meeting. More details will follow shortly.

WATCH FOR MORE INFORMATION AT THE END OF NOVEMBER.
